

“Crisis in Europe, Europe in Crisis – Financial Markets, Regions, Cities and Uneven Development in Europe”

International Seminar (Hamburg, 3rd & 4th May 2012)

Thursday, 03.05.12

Time		Chair
13:30	Registration
14:00	Welcome from the Principal of the HafenCity University Hamburg, Dr. Walter Pelka
14:15	Introduction and Welcome, Prof Dr. Gernot Grabher & Tim Heinemann	Martin Sokol
14:30	Keynote: Economic Geographies of Finance: Travels in Time and Space (Roger Lee, Queen Mary, University of London)
15:30	Intervention (Dariusz Wojcik, University of Oxford)
16:45	From bank- vs. market-based to local- vs. international-oriented financial systems: The case of German saving banks (Stefan Gärtner & Franz Floegel, IAT Gelsenkirchen)
16:15	Coffee Break
16:30	Dynamics of Capital Re-Switching within and beyond Europe (David Bassens & Michel van Meerteren , University of Ghent)	Zoltan Gal
17:00	New Investment circuits as a response to the Crisis. What consideration for the territorial and sustainability issues? (Victoriya Salomon, University of Neuchatel)
17:15	Keynote: Reforms of the international financial system and the role of the G20s and the IMF (Gustav Bager, Hungarian Audit Office)
18:15	Finish
19:30	Dinner at the Restaurant Warsteiner Elbspeicher, Große Elbstrasse 39, 22767 Hamburg (Ferry to the Restaurant leaves at 18:20; 18:35; 18:50 from Standtorhöft pier)

Friday, 04.05.12

Time		Chair
09:00	Keynote: The Housing Market and Urban Development after the Financial Crisis (Gary Dymski, University of California at Riverside)	Tim Heinemann
10:00	The financialisation of urban development: Tax Increment Financing in Newcastle upon Tyne (Thomas Strickland, University of Newcastle upon Tyne)
10:30	A Fetish and Fiction of Finance: Unravelling the Sub-prime Crisis (Erica, Pani, Queen Mary, University of London)
11:00	Coffee Break
11:15	Financial FDI in Central Eastern Europe revisited (Magdolna Sass, Hungarian Academy of Science & Zoltan Gal, University of Pecs)	Dariusz Wojcik
11:45	Spatial impacts of deposit collection and lending practices of commercial banks by the oligopol market structures in Hungary (Balázs György, Corvinus University Budapest)
12:00	The role of financial services offshoring in CEE – Tackling the crisis: the cases of Czechia and Hungary (Pavel Ptacek, Palacky University & Zoltan Gal, University of Pecs)
12:30	Lunch at La Baracca Restaurant (Italian Cuisine), Am Sandtorkai 44, 20457 Hamburg
13:30	How the crisis influences the uneven development of Ukrainian regions (Olga Shevchenko, National Institute of Strategic Studies)	Martin Sokol
14:15	Learning from the crisis: Is finance ready for (permanent) inter-firm collaboration? (Christian Baumeister, Catholic University, Eichstaett)
14:30	Final Discussions
16:00	End	